

Pokedeck

In order to build my Pokedeck project, I used an MVC structure that allowed me to separate access, manipulation and display of data. This structure also makes it easy to implement new features.

My project is therefore divided into 3 packages:

- Models
- Views
- Controllers

Modeling :

